Whereas, as a center of learning and inquiry, Cornell is proud of its Code of Academic Integrity, (<http://cuinfo.cornell.edu/Academic/AIC.html>) but continues to suffer significantly from violations of the Code.

Therefore, in an effort to increase awareness of the Code, and better establish it as a part of Cornell identity, the Senate resolves, following consultation with members of the Administration responsible for admissions and enrollment and the office of the University Counsel, that the Advisory Committee of the Associate Provost of Admissions and Enrollment, that acknowledgment of a student's responsibility under acceptance of the Code should be a requirement for matriculation into Cornell's various undergraduate degree programs. Specifically, a student's affirmation of acceptance of Cornell's offer of admission should include language stating that the student will abide by the Code.
