

Faculty Salaries

The Faculty Senate, academic deans, and administration have identified two sets of research university peers (one for Endowed Ithaca and one for the contract colleges).

A goal was established to increase faculty salaries to the respective peer group average within a five to six year period, beginning in 2001-02.