

EPC RESOLUTION ON ACADEMIC WORK DURING BREAKS

Whereas student workloads have become an increasing cause of concern in relation to student mental health; and

Whereas short breaks from academic requirements are generally regarded as healthy,

Be it resolved that framing assignments in such a way that necessitates academic work for students over Fall Break, Thanksgiving Break or Spring Break is strongly discouraged. Students should have sufficient time to carry out the assignment without having to work during the break.