

Faculty Senate

September 12, 2018

To promote the communication of opposing views and to serve as a free-speech-with-respect model for the rest of the campus, all discussion in the Faculty Senate must be conducted in a civil fashion that is free of any intimidation or personal attacks.

- the University Faculty Committee

Announcements

Charlie Van Loan
Dean of Faculty

We Need a Speaker

Familiarity with Roberts Rules.

Does not have to be a member of the University Faculty.

Suggestions to deanoffaculty@cornell.edu

Must be in place in time for October meeting.

University Policy 6.3: Consensual Relationships

The policy approved by the President in her May 2018 letter to the community is now official.

Much work needs to be done so that the implementation is effective.

The policy has three basic provisions..

Policy 6.3 : Consensual Relationships

Provision 1

Any member of the Cornell community who has, or has had, a sexual or romantic relationship with a student or postgraduate is prohibited from exercising academic or professional authority over that student or postgraduate.

Policy 6.3 : Consensual Relationships

Provision 2

Sexual or romantic relationships between faculty members or others in positions of authority and undergraduate students are strictly prohibited regardless of the department, school, or college affiliation of either party.

Policy 6.3 : Consensual Relationships

Provision 3

Sexual or romantic relationships are prohibited whenever the faculty member or other individual holds a position of authority over the student or postgraduate or is likely to do so in the foreseeable future.

Maplewood

Status:

472 beds completed and occupied

194 beds ready this week

106 beds possibly ready mid October

Upcoming

Ad Hoc Committees will soon be formed to deal with these two issues:

1. How might we improve upon the current line-up of official class meeting times, e.g., MWF 10:10-11:00, T 2:30-4:25, etc.
2. How might we improve upon Policy 1.2 that is concerned with academic/research misconduct?