16:07:37 From Gregory Weiland : I approve (I am sub, but dept senator has left University)

16:30:14 From Courtney Roby : Well said, Risa.

16:30:17 From Bruno Xavier : Absolutely agree with Risa!

16:30:41 From Maria Gandolfo Nixon : Completely agree with Risa, so important

16:32:16 From Mary Jo Dudley : Thank you Risa. It is precisely those that are working to address and redress systematic racism that are seriously underfunded by the university.

16:32:35 From Sofia Villenas : Thank you Rissa! Agee

16:37:48 From Paul Ginsparg : How were the student respondents selected?

16:38:24 From Paul Ginsparg : good, so "random sampling"

16:40:09 From Susan Quirk : have Cornell-supported safe activities, like clubs, been started in earnest and provided space, to reward and encourage students rather than simply expecting compliance?

16:40:48 From Neema Kudva : The limits on 10 people gatherings are in force till end September

16:41:20 From Susan Quirk : hybrid attendance in clubs would be possible if promoted

16:43:29 From Richard Bensel : The Cornell Sun has reported that there have been significant delays in Dashboard reporting. Does anyone know how many positive cases are current in the University community?

16:46:17 From Paul Ginsparg : I've had the odd experience of students switching from my in-person to on-line section as "more convenient"

16:46:34 From Paul Ginsparg : (i have roughly 40 in each for a total of 80)

16:46:37 From Chris Schaffer : @Richard - <https://covid.cornell.edu/testing/dashboard/>

16:46:46 From Chris Schaffer : Current as of 6 pm last night.

16:47:02 From Chris Schaffer : Hopefully another update this evening (?)

16:48:03 From Richard Bensel : Thanks, Chris! Maybe they are catching up!

16:49:30 From Paul Ginsparg : re the dashboard, they are certainly aware of the problems (it's not remotely clear why it would be difficult to update the site when the data is fed to the county, where it appears daily; but there must be some behind-the-scenes logistical issues)

16:49:55 From Michael Tomlan : Great comments Samantha. Thank you

16:51:54 From Susan Quirk : what is being done to help students new to Cornell, for example, transfer students, to mix socially? Is anything going on in dorms to help?

16:52:01 From Paul Ginsparg : Charlie, there's a gigantic gap in evening guidelines: e.g., they're trying to closely regulate use during the day to ensure dedensification, but e.g. in Gates it's been unlocked and I've seen students working at night — to be clear, masked and distanced, so they're fine — but the point is why carefully dedensify faculty in their own offices during the day but then leave evenings uncovered?

16:52:09 From Darlene Evans : About the dashboard. It would be helpful if we could get totals, instead of just weekly or daily statistics.

16:52:55 From Sean Cosgrove : How might this discussion pertain to graduate students?

16:52:58 From Ken Birman : Right this second we are around 1/3 of the threshold, based on data released yesterday

16:53:10 From Ken Birman : And yes, I myself check it daily and was surprised that it froze up...

16:53:19 From Maria Gandolfo Nixon : Thank you Kaylee, Brian and Samantha! Please continue keeping safe and healthy. You are inspiration for all our students!

16:53:34 From Martha Field : agree, thanks to the students for presenting!

16:54:13 From Rhonda Gilmore : Brian, Kaylee, and Samantha: you ROCK! Thank you for your commitment to health and Cornell

16:54:20 From Jenny Loeffelman : campus groups!!

16:54:33 From Tracy Stokol : NY state also has a dashboard for all SUNY campuses:
<https://www.suny.edu/covid19-tracker/>

16:54:55 From Ken Birman : I should maybe add that the reason the current number "counts" as just 1/3 of the threshold is because (1) not all cases were in Ithaca; (2) some occurred when people were already in quarantine for reasons explicitly excluded by the governor's policy.

16:54:56 From Elissa Sampson : Yes and Cornell is listed there.

16:55:09 From Jenny Loeffelman : the first 30 days of programming has also been a huge hit. all those programs are linked through campus groups

16:55:15 From Courtney Roby : Thanks so much to you all for your hard work and for sharing your experiences!

16:55:19 From David Lee : Thanks to the three of you--great job!

16:55:32 From Beth Milles : Thank you

16:55:41 From Oren Falk : thanks

16:55:42 From Ariel Ortiz Bobea : Thanks

16:55:47 From Brian Walker : Thanks for having us!

16:55:52 From Tracy Stokol : Thanks.

16:55:54 From Peter Wolczanski : Great job by the students; wishing you terrific success this semester!

16:56:04 From Kaylee Zhong : Thank you for having us!!

16:56:31 From Ariel Ortiz Bobea : I agree with Ken!

16:56:43 From Mary Jo Dudley : Great job by the students.

16:59:00 From Paul Ginsparg : I'm now worried about charlie v.l. getting depressed in his basement

17:04:31 From Bruce van Dover : many thanks for the updates and insights re RAs, Neema. very helpful

17:12:24 From Samantha Noland : Thank you everyone!

17:13:45 From Brian Walker : Thanks again!

17:15:08 From Elissa Sampson : Neema, for open buildings that students can book for study purposes, is there a distinction being made between those with ventilation systems (HEPA and MERV filters) vs those without (e.g., McGraw)

17:16:43 From Neema Kudva : I know ventilation systems are being taken into account — though I can't speak to specifics.

17:20:03 From Kaylee Zhong : Mary Dudley wanted me to share some of the ideas we were thinking about for our "Tips for Happiness" social media campaign. Some tips we were thinking of: going outdoors (hikes, nature, sightseeing waterfalls), fun community virtual events (mask decorating, netflix movie nights, coffee chats, etc.), and many more ideas. All of which would be social distanced :)

17:21:24 From Doug Antczak : Signing off now. Many thanks to Charlie and Neema for organizing and to colleagues and students for informed discussion.
