

15:30:25 From William Katt : Of note: the zoom link is demanding a 'commercial login', which is not directly compatible with logging in via the Cornell zoom webpage.

15:30:34 From William Katt : So some people may be struggling to join.

15:32:22 From William Katt : So what happened for me is that when I clicked the link, after logging in online like I normally do, it wouldn't work - I had to go to the Cornell/zoom web page, click join a meeting, and manually enter the meeting ID and password. Hopefully others are better at navigating Zoom than I am.

15:33:22 From Jill Short to William Katt(Direct Message) : Thank you for sharing your experience logging in. I will work with CIT to determine how we can make the login experience less cumbersome.

15:35:17 From Jill Short to Sara C. Pryor(Direct Message) : Thank you for your suggestion.

Sure Sara, happy to do so. For me, teacher is meant as a category of high respect. But very happy to use faculty as preferred.

16:28:19 From Suzanne Lane : Will faculty have input into WHICH tool Cornell licenses?
